Wm MacLeod, Curator

Dear Sir,

I received your note and pictures.
Both were satisfactory, except that I had to pay one dollar and nine cents ($1.09) postage.

Thinking the mistake was made at the office here, I took the pictures to the office and was told I was charged full letter postage, because the package was done up so ~~they~~^{it} could not be examined without breaking the wrapper.

That is, the contents could not be gotten at to be examined for written ²matter, without tearing the envelope - and that they were not allowed to do, There was as you know about an inch at either end of the package to be torn to get the pictures out.

The pictures were "2 Cordays 12x14 & 1. Odalisque", 2x14.

I am thus particular about this matter to protect myself
- that you may protect yourself and that others may not have the same annoyance and expense,
- and not to be fault finding.

I cannot understand how you who send so many packages - or the P. O. have thousands of receivers so many could make such a mistake, as mistake there is with one or the other - at my expense -

3.

They refused to rectify the matter here, and said my grievance must be with you — hence this letter.

I am Yours.

Dear Sir:

Some few weeks since I noticed at a private house in Champagne Co this state a valuable landscape painting 3 feet by 5 feet: Called "the Flemish Pasture" by De Meeter of Bruges, Flanders Belgium: This picture represents a pasture with four cows. (three or four) & the herder with them and in the distance woods &c:

I never saw better animal painting: This painting with two small dutch paintings were sent to this party in 1873 with instructions to sell the large one for $800. That was a time of financial depression in this country, and no particular effort was made to sell it then, or since. The artist & the party here wish to make some disposition of it or it will be returned. As an amateur, and having often & many a day looked over the paintings in Corcoran Art Gallery, prior to 1874, in my opinion you had nothing at that time that would compare with this.

I think your Gallery ought to have this one. This picture can be had for $400. It has only a temporary frame as it was sent in.

Would you like to purchase this picture:

Yours Truly

W^m M^cLeod Esq.,

Dear Sir,

My mother Mrs
J. F. B. Morse is desirous of disposing of the large painting entitled "The Dying Hercules," painted by her husband. It is at present loaned to the Yale School of Fine Arts, and Prof. Weir of that institution told me, at a recent interview with him, that the Corcoran Gallery would, in all probability like to become the possessor of it.

It is a painting of which you have doubtless heard, and which is, in a measure, historical.

And, as we think that no more suitable place, in which to preserve it, could be found than the National Gallery of the country of which my father was an honored citizen; I take the liberty of addressing you, Trusting that, if my proposition meets with your approval, and you are desirous of becoming its purchaser, you will favor me with an early reply.

I remain

Very sincerely yours
E. L. Morse
